

Data Protection Policy

Red Hill promises to respect the information you provide to us and we will not pass on any of your information to other organisations to be used for their own purposes.

Our promises:

- Red Hill will endeavour at all times to ensure that all personal data we hold is accurate; and
- All personal data is kept secure; ensuring that our technical and organisational security measures are kept up-to-date at all times; and
- You have the right to request to see all personal data that Red Hill holds relating to yourself and such information can be deleted on request

From the 25th May 2018 in accordance with new privacy laws, we will only send you information that you have opted in to receive. If you no longer want to receive information your details can be removed or suppressed from our mailing list (if suppressed we can retain your details to record occasional gifts and maintain gift aid but will not send any mailings).

If you would like to receive information from us please send an email to info@red-hill.org or in writing to Red Hill Christian Centre, Snitterfield, Stratford upon Avon, Warwickshire, CV37 0PQ.

You can opt out/unsubscribe at any time either by emailing info@red-hill.org or by writing to us.

Gift Aid

Due to HMRC regulations we must keep a record of all gift aided donations for a minimum of 7 years. If you no longer wish to receive information from us but have gift aided in the past we can suppress your details, meaning we will hold relevant information for gift aid purposes but will not include you on any mailing lists. We can only delete your details if you have not gift aided in the past.

Bookings

Due to the process that Red Hill follows to make a booking on our bookings database we need to hold the following information to complete the booking & invoicing process. Your name, organisation, department, address, town, postcode, country, telephone number, mobile number and email address.
